Attorney Invoice Template (South Africa Currency) Features and Facts

If you are an independent attorney, an invoice template may be your choice to create and email professional and customized Invoices. This simple Excel formatted Attorney Invoice Template (South Africa Currency) provides a sample that you can download for free.

An invoice is a form of communication with a client. The contents of an invoice should be prepared with the same thought and effort as a letter to be sent to a client. The invoicing templates provided to you by InvoicingTemplates.com allows you to do this in a professional and easy way. If you use Uniform Invoice Software, which turns an simple Excel template into a complete invoicing creator or billing system, the invoicing functionality offers a series of settings and options that enable small law firms to efficiently create customized professional invoices that can include personalized messages and client payment history, plus the ability to email directly from within the invoicing application.

If you are an independent attorney or a small law firm, creating professional invoices is as important as to a large law firm. Most clients do not understand the work lawyers do. They do not understand that even when a lawyer knows a particular area of the law, a lawyer may still need to review the law and research the legal issues. They do not understand that a lawyer may need to review and revise contracts, briefs and other documents so that they clearly, concisely and persuasively express a client's position or protect a client's rights and interests. Clients do not understand how much time and effort it takes to do legal work. The invoice is the opportunity to help a client understand the service you offered.

As a service invoice template and consulting invoice template, c5067 Attorney Invoice Template (South Africa Currency) (Attorney Billing Statement (South Africa Currency)) does not include the shipping address section as you can find many invoice forms here on InvoicingTemplates.com.

While the free version of Attorney Invoice Template (South Africa Currency) is simple, the result invoice created by using this template is as beautiful and professional as many commercial invoicing software program, or even better. It is an ideal tool for small businesses and freelancers who offer services and don't need a shipping section on their invoicing form. It is a good service invoice creator, but if you need more features, like management of customers, products / service items, invoices and payments, just install Uniform Invoice Software to make all the buttons on Attorney Invoice Template (South Africa Currency) work for you.

This invoice template introduces 2 custom fields that are added to the invoice header database table - "Case #" and "Case Reference".

Uniform Invoice Software support custom fields or user-defined fields, which is a unique feature that allows you to add new fields to the backend database as well as to the invoice form.

Attorney Invoice Template (South Africa Currency) uses custom fields to implement the features that are not available in the default sales invoice template. With the support for custom fields in the database, Uniform Invoice Software has the ability to manipulate the newly added fields in database, includes adding them to reports. With the support for custom fields in the Excel worksheet, Uniform Invoice Software has the ability to create the relationship between fields - for example, one field should be the sum of the other fields, or the value of one field should be calculated only when another field value equals a certain value.

The support for custom fields makes it possible for even an end user who does not know programming at all, could add new features to her/his invoicing creator such as Attorney Invoice Template (South Africa Currency) without writing one line of programming code. For example, in this tax invoicing template named Mixed Tax Rates in an Invoice, we implement the support of mixed tax rates in the same invoice by using custom fields. The result of the customization is offered in two editions, as what we do to all the other templates available here on InvoicingTemplates.com, that are one freeware edition, and another edition that works only with Uniform Invoice Software installed.

Adding a custom field to the Invoice Header table in the database makes it possible to save the field value to database along with the other data of an invoice. For example, adding the custom field Company Name to the Invoice Header database table allows you to save the company name of a customer to the database when you save an invoice. If you use Uniform Invoice Software version template Attorney Invoice Template (South Africa Currency) and add the custom field to the invoice form, the value is saved from or retrieved to Attorney Invoice Template (South Africa Currency) whenever you save or reload an invoice.

There is also one custom column, "Date", added to invoice detail section.

Adding a custom field to the Invoice Body database table makes it possible to save the data on the invoice form to database when the "Save To DB" button is clicked. For example, adding the custom field "Product Type" to the Invoice Body database table allows save the type value on the invoice form, such as "General" or "Labor", to database when you save an invoice by clicking the "Save To DB" button. This feature is not supported in the freeware edition of Attorney Invoice Template (South Africa Currency).

The currency symbol of this invoicing template is set to South Africa, which displays the symbol "R" before most numeric cells, such as line totals, subtotal, paid and balance due. If this does not work for you, you can easily change it - first, drag your mouse to select all the cells that you want to change the currency symbol for; second, right-click one of the selected cells and then choose

"Format Cells" from the Excel shortcut menu; third, on the Number tab, choose the format you like, including currency symbol.
