Dear Mr. Kirsch:

When I arrived in 1978 in Indiana to teach social studies as a very naïve young teacher, I had no idea that the next thirty-five or thirty-six years would go so quickly. I have enjoyed almost every moment of the ride, but it's now time to pull into the pasture. Please accept this letter as my resignation for the purpose of retirement effective the last teacher workday of the 2013-2014 school year. It was been my honor to serve this community and will miss being part of the faculty at the senior high school. It was a privilege to serve at both secondary buildings and be part of the professional staff of the Indiana Area School District.

Sincerely and respectfully,

Peggy Eyer
