REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS ACT 1974

The following is an extract from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act to explain the term 'unspent convictions'.

WHAT IS THE ACT?

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act was introduced to enable criminal convictions to be 'spent' or forgotten after a period of rehabilitation. After this period, with some exceptions, an offender will not normally be obliged to mention the conviction when applying for a job, obtaining insurance or when involved in other criminal legal proceedings.

HOW LONG IS THE REHABILITATION PERIOD?

The period of rehabilitation will depend upon the sentence given, not the actual time served in custody.

	SENTENCE	PERSONS 17 OR OVER WHEN CONVICTED	PERSONS UNDER 17 WHEN CONVICTED
1	2½ years or over	Never	Never
2	6 months to 2½ years	10 years	5 years
3	Less than 6 months	7 years	3½ years
4	Fine or Community Service Order	5 years	2½ years
5	Absolute discharge	6 months	6 months
6	Youth Custody (under 21)	7 years	7 years
7	Detention (under 21)	3 years	3 years
8	Probation, conditional discharge or bind-over	1 year or until the Order expires
9	Attendance Centre Order	1 year after the Order expires
10	Hospital Orders	5 years, or 2 years after the order expires - whichever is the longer period

HOW DOES THIS AFFECT ME?

If you have been awarded any of the sentences shown and the period of rehabilitation has been completed, your sentence is regarded as having been 'spent' and need not be declared. If it has not been 'spent' then it must be included on your declaration form.
