Job description

As a "Associate Software Engineer" you will be responsible for the development and delivery of software components across different stages of the development life cycle in Cordys project across the globe. The development of software components involves building artifacts like Java  Classes, Business Process Development, Web Services, Integration with the backend systems like database, ERP Packages , .Net Packages, J2EE Packages etc.. and UI development.  You will be working with project team with our partners, customers across the globe.  As a key member of a Scrum team you will be working with agile development methodology.

Our Associate software engineers are responsible for creating  artifacts, quality deliverables, making efficient and quality models and code , apply design patterns  to 'make it happen' in well thought and efficient software code.

We are looking for a seasoned security software engineer.

Key competencies are:
Java programming skills
Web services and XML standards and technologies: XML, XSD, SOAP, REST, WSDL, WS-Security, SAML, JavaScript/HTML5.0
Designing skills, UML
Exposure to database SQL queries

Personal skills we like are:
Proactive, decisive, takes ownership
Clear communicator with a pragmatic attitude
Touch for finding loose ends
Real team player with quality orientation

Location:
Hyderabad