

Bachelorette Party Planning – Bachelorette Party Checklist

Bachelorette parties can be a great deal of fun but they can also be a lot of work. It isn't hard or difficult to plan a bachelorette party, but it is important to stay organized while in the process. To help you plan a perfect bachelorette party we've put a Bachelorette Party Checklist together to keep you on track.

Bachelorette Party Checklist

- 1. Pick a Date. Picking a date can sometimes be the most challenging part of planning the bachelorette party. Try to pick a date that isn't too close to the wedding. Two weeks or so prior to the big day is good.
  - 2. Pick a Theme. First check with the bride to see if she what type of party she would like. Some brides prefer a low key theme like a spa day while others prefer a night on the town.
  - 3. Bachelorette Invitations. Some people like to send out formal invitations , however one of the simplest and cost effective ways to send out bachelorette party invitations is either using Evite or Facebook. As long as you have everyone's email addresses this is a much simpler way to get the word out about the party.
  - 4. Budget. Its very important to decide who is going to pay for what before the party. For many bachelorette parties the guests will pay their own way and kick in a portion of the bride's cost.
  - 5. Bachelorette Party Food. Unless you are going out to a restaurant, food should be included in the party. The type of food you serve may consist of simple appetizers, a potluck, or "naughty treats." Another idea is to match your food to the theme of the bachelorette party,
  - 6: Bachelorette Party Decorations. This step is only required if you are going to host a bachelorette party at your home or someone else's home. You won't need to get bachelorette party decorations if you are going out.
  - 7. Bachelorette Party Shirts. This step is optional if you are going out for the party. A bachelorette party tradition is to dress the bachelorette up in a "special tshirt". Bachelorette tshirts come in many different styles, themes and games.
- Lastly, have fun, take pictures and make sure the bride has a good time!!!!
