HOW TO USE THIS AGREEMENT

- 1. All boarding house tenancy agreements must be in writing.
- 2. The landlord must provide the tenant with a copy of this agreement and any boarding house rules prior to the commencement of the tenancy.
- 3. This agreement must be completed in full and the tenant and landlord should each keep a copy.
- 4. The rights and obligations set out in the Residential Tenancies Act 1986 are implied in every residential boarding house tenancy agreement
- 5. No terms or conditions added to this agreement are valid if they are contrary to the Residential Tenancies Act 1986
- 6. Before signing this agreement all parties should carefully read it and seek advice from Tenancy Services if they are unclear about what they are agreeing to.
- 7. If a bond equivalent to more than one week's rent is paid, a Bond Lodgement form must also be completed and the bond lodged with Tenancy Services within 23 working days of being paid.
- 8. If a bond equivalent to one week's rent or less is paid the landlord must immediately provide a receipt to the tenant.
- 9. Parties to tenancy agreements are subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 1993. Any information provided on this agreement shall not be used or disclosed, without consent, for any purpose other than the administration of the tenancy or to pursue legal action.
- 10. The tenant may be required to pay any letting fee or other charge for services provided by any solicitor or letting agent relating to the granting of the tenancy.
- 11. If there is a problem between the tenant and landlord, and they can't agree, Tenancy Services can help sort it out. Visit www.tenancy.govt.nz or call for free advice on 0800 836 262.

Outline of the provisions of the Residential Tenancies Act 1986 (RTA)

Please refer to the Residential Tenancies Act 1986 and amendments for the complete provisions

1. Agreement

Each party should keep a copy of this tenancy agreement. Changes in the particulars of either party must be notified to the other party within 10 working days.

2. Address for service

The address for service is a physical address in New Zealand where notices and other documents relating to the tenancy will be accepted by you, or on your behalf, even after the tenancy has ended. You may also supply an additional address for service which can include a PO Box, email or facsimile.

3. Rent

- Landlords shall not require rent to be paid more than 2 weeks in advance, nor until rent already paid has been used up.
- Receipts must be given immediately if rent is paid in cash.

4. Bond

- A bond is not compulsory, but a landlord may require a bond of up to 4 weeks' rent.
- If the bond is more than the equivalent of one week's rent it must be lodged with Tenancy Services within 23 working days of being paid.
- Receipts must be given for bond payments.
- The bond covers any damage or loss to the landlord if the tenant's obligations are not met, but does not cover fair wear and tear.

5. Landlord's responsibilities

- Provide the room in a reasonable state of cleanliness.
- Maintain the room to a reasonable state of repair and comply with laws in respect of building, health and safety.
- Allow the tenant quiet enjoyment of the room.
- Ensure the tenant has access to the room and toilet and bathroom facilities at all times and to other facilities at all reasonable hours.
- Enforce the house rules in a fair and consistent manner and give 7 days' written notice of any new house rules.
- Pay rates and any insurance taken out by the landlord. *
- Inform the tenant if the property is on the market for sale.
- Not interfere with the supply of any services to the premises.
- Appoint an agent and notify the tenant and bond centre of that person's details if the landlord is leaving New Zealand for more than 21 consecutive days.

If the landlord is in breach of these responsibilities, the tenant(s) can apply to the Tenancy Tribunal.

6. Tenant's responsibilities

- Pay the rent on time.
- Keep the premises reasonably clean and tidy, and notify the landlord as soon as any repairs are needed. You may not withhold rent if you cannot get repairs done.
- Use the premises principally for residential purposes.
- Pay all electricity, gas, telephone and metered water charges.
- Not damage or permit damage to the premises, and inform the landlord of any damage. *
- Not disturb the neighbours or the landlord's other tenants.
- Not alter the room without the landlord's written consent.

- Not use the room and premises for any unlawful purpose.
- Leave the room clean and tidy, and clear of rubbish and possessions at the end of the tenancy.
- Observe the house rules.
- Not keep a pet on the premises without the landlord's permission.
- At the end of the tenancy, leave all keys and such things with the landlord. Leave all chattels supplied with the tenancy.

7. Rights of entry

The landlord may enter the premises:

- with the tenant's consent at the time of entry.
- in an emergency to save life or property, or eliminate serious risk to life or property.
- for repairs or maintenance, between 8 am to 6pm, after 24 hours' notice.
- to show the premises to prospective tenants or purchasers, or to a registered valuer, real estate agent, or other expert engaged in appraising the premises, after 24 hours' notice.
- for a general inspection of the room between 8 am to 6 pm, after 24 hours' notice. The landlord may not inspect more than once every four weeks.

Where a room is let to more than one tenant notice may be given to any tenant and consent may be provided by any tenant.

8. Locks

Locks can only be changed with the agreement of both the tenant and the landlord. They should be provided and maintained in a secure state by the landlord.

9. Notice to terminate tenancy

The tenant may terminate the tenancy by giving the landlord 48 hours' oral or written notice.

The landlord may terminate the tenancy immediately if the tenant has caused or threatened to cause harm or damage to the premises, people or other tenants.

The landlord may terminate on 48 hours' written notice if the tenant is using the premises for an illegal purpose, has abandoned the room, or has not complied with a 10 day notice to pay rent arrears.

The landlord may terminate the tenancy by giving 28 days' notice in writing if no reason is given.

10. Mitigation of loss

If one party to the tenancy agreement breaches it, the other party must take all reasonable steps to limit the damage or loss arising from the breach.

*Any insurance taken out by the landlord is unlikely to cover the tenant's liability for damage.
