How To Read Your Paycheck

	Header	What it means	How it compares to your old paycheck
A	Employee ID	Each employee has a six-digit identification number.	Your Employee number included part of your social security number.
B	Employee Name	Your name	Your name is still your name!
C	Date	The date the check was issued.	Unchanged
D	Check Number/DD Number	Unique number identifying your check or direct deposit stub.	Unchanged
E	Social Security Number	Displays the last 4 digits of your social security number.	Your Employee number included part of your social security number.
F	Start Period	Start of pay period	Not included
G	End Period	End of pay period	Not included
H	Wages	All wages paid during this period, including base pay (your standard monthly payment) and additions (such as overtime) and deductions (such as time missed).	Includes information listed in the "Regular wages" and "Other wages" columns.
I	Benefits	The monthly and year-to-date contributions paid by the County of Albemarle on your behalf, including retirement, life insurance, health and dental benefits.	Includes information listed in the "YTD Employer Contributions" column (retirement, life, health, and dental info) and "Non Cash" columns (life insurance greater than $50,000 and annuities for part-time employees).
J	Deductions	Any items that you choose to deduct voluntarily from your check, including health and dental costs, group life insurance, AFLAC, Unum, roadside assistance, long-term disability, health club dues, United Way contributions, flexible spending accounts, credit union deductions, 403b and 457 payments.	Deductions are shown in several places: 403b and 457 payments are shown in the "Deferred Comp." column. Health and dental costs and flexible spending accounts are listed in "Salary Reduction" column. Other deductions are listed in the "Current Miscellaneous Deductions" column.
K	Taxes	Social security, federal, and state taxes. FICA costs are broken down into medicare and social security costs. The current month and year-to-date taxes are included here.	Federal, FICA, and State taxes are each listed in their own columns. FICA medicare and social security costs are combined into one column.
L	Leave Balance	Matches current leave balance block, except no "as of date" info. Leave balances continue to be one month behind.	Unchanged
M	Net Check	The total amount you are receiving.	Corresponds to Current Net Pay
