

Sample Behavior/Symptom Checklist

Date:

Check the box that best describes this child compared with other children of the same gender and age.

	NEVER	SOME-TIMES	OFTEN	VERY OFTEN
Loses things necessary for tasks or activities
Leaves seat in classroom or other situations when expected to remain seated
Has difficulty getting along with other children
Seems sad, moody, depressed or discouraged
Worries about or avoids activities previously enjoyed

Adapted from Castellanos, E Xavier, and Karen J. Miller, "Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorders," Pediatrics in Review 19, no. 11 (Nov. 1998): 373-84.