COST: $50.00 per person (includes challenge course, water, granola bars, lunch)
$35 per person for others from same association or company
Deadline for registration: August 8, 2012

Carol Joy Holling Conference & Retreat Center invites NSAE members and your officers, board members, and staff to come experience the fun of working together as a team on the Low-Rope Team Challenge Course. The program will not only bring new energy to your team, it will provide an opportunity to intentionally work on developing and advancing team skills. Working through the challenges together will develop trust, effective communication and accountability in a committed, controlled environment with trained and certified facilitators.

The course takes three hours to complete, and water and granola bars will be provided. Dennis Pope will debrief the group throughout the course. You will learn to apply your experience to maintain your group's cohesiveness. Lunch will be served at approximately 12:00 p.m. at the Swanson Center. Tours of the property by bus will be available afterwards.

Wear your comfortable clothes and sturdy shoes. More details will be sent to registrants. This low-rope challenge course is designed for all ages and abilities. If you have been looking for a team-building, leadership-development opportunity, here is a chance for you and your staff to embark on a process of discovery at Carol Joy Holling Conference & Retreat Center.
