- Since 1998 Registered at the Law Society (London) as Middle East Legal Consultant.
- Since 2001 Admitted as a full member (MCI Arb) of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, London.

2. Legal Practice:

As it can be seen from the following, I have about 50 years of experience as Legal Advisor and Attorney at Law in the field of Iraqi and Middle Eastern business laws including company laws, telecom laws, construction contracts and related claims as well as litigations, arbitration and tendering. Presently, I practise as a legal consultant in the above mentioned field in association with a group of international lawyers (please see my website: www.Iraqilawconsultant.com).

2.1 In Iraq:

I was for more than 10 years Legal Advisor and Attorney at Law for Iraqi Ministries and government organisations, as well as practicing before Iraqi courts.

2.2 In Europe:

- a) I have been licensed as Middle East Consultant in Germany and England, and have given legal advice and expert opinion to European and American law firms, companies and courts and arbitration tribunals on legal questions concerning Iraqi and Arab laws, including claims arising from contractual liability and unlawful acts.
- b) I have advised the UN Compensation Commission on issues related to the liability of Iraq for loss and damages resulting from Iraq's invasion of Kuwait.
- c) I have presented foreign creditors including Hyundai in debt collection proceedings in Iraq.
- d) I have advised a major telecommunication company in the Middle East on due diligence and acquisition of another Middle East telecommunication company.
- e) I have also advised law firms in London and submitted expert opinion on a billion dollar claim regarding the liability of the Iraqi State for the debts of its public entities.
- f) Recently, I have advised a law firm in London and submitted expert opinion in respect of claims filed by Iraqi victims of unlawful arrest and torture against the UK Ministry of Defence involving questions of tortious liability and limitation period.
- g) I am also engaged as an arbitrator on claims related to shipping and demurrage.

During many years of experience, I have learned the art of legal drafting, negotiating and the talent for communicating across borders, and strategic planning.

3. Last Post:

From December 1980 until May 2003, I spent more than 22 years in full-time posts as a Senior Legal Advisor (Referatsleiter), Company Secretary and later as a Director (Prokurist) of the Contract Management Department in Preussag, a large industrial group of companies in Germany.
