

Allie Robbins

Curriculum Vitae

Education

City University of New York School of Law, J.D., May 2009

The George Washington University

B.A. International Affairs, May 2004, magna cum laude

Concentrations: International Development, Global Public Health, International Economics

Educational/Training Experience

CUNY School of Law, Long Island City, NY

June 2012-present

Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs: Work with the Associate Academic Dean and Academic Affairs Office staff to coordinate and enhance academic services. Assist in coordinating bar exam support programs.

CUNY School of Law, Long Island City, NY

June 2012-June 2013

Director of Student Affairs/Director of Bar Exam Support Programs: Coordinated bar exam support programs, including implementation of a new Summer Mentor Program with 15 mentors and over 100 students in the summer of 2012. Additionally, coordinated all student organization activities, including organization registration and student government elections, and oversaw the transition of bar support and student activities to the Long Island City building. Coordinated Professional Development Time. Worked with the Dean of Students to handle student issues such as medical withdrawals, disciplinary matters, and general student concerns.

CUNY School of Law, Flushing, NY

January 2010-June

2012

Adjunct Professor: Co-coordinated bar exam support programs, including data collection following the release of exam results, interfacing with commercial bar corporations, working with professors to incorporate increased bar exam-type questions into their courses, and individualized support for students both the February and July bar exams. Additionally, co-taught Applied Legal Analysis, a bar skills course for 125 third year students, which consisted of substantive and skill-based lectures, coordinating presentations by bar exam experts, and providing feedback on essay and multiple-choice questions each week. I also served as an adjunct professor for the Irene Diamond Professional Skills Center assisting first-year students and providing individualized feedback on practice essay exams.

New York Law School, Manhattan, NY.

January 2012-May 2012

Adjunct Professor: Served as a grader for the Principles of Legal Analysis Class, an academic support class for underperforming first year students. Provided detailed individualized feedback to students on essays, multiple-choice questions, and issue spotting exercises.

CUNY School of Law, Flushing, NY

June-July 2010

Non-Teaching Adjunct: Provided one-on-one bar exam support to students taking the July bar exam. Primarily, I provided assistance to those students who were graduates of the Pipeline to Justice Program for students from underrepresented communities.

CUNY School of Law, Flushing, NY

2007-2009

Graduate Fellow Teaching Assistant: Served as a teaching assistant for the Irene Diamond Professional Skills Center. Worked with first-year students one-on-one and with study groups, in order to enhance study skills and prepare for exams. Served as a teaching assistant during the Summer Law Institute program for incoming law students during the summer of 2008. Coordinated the curriculum for the Third World Orientation Program, geared towards incoming students of color.

College and Youth Academy, Counseling and Treating People of Colour Conference:
An International Perspective

1999-2010

Co-Director: Coordinate and manage four-day leadership academy for college-age students focusing on leadership and cross-cultural understanding through the conference's six core topics of health, mental health, HIV/AIDS, substance abuse, violence, and education.

Fellowships/Awards/Publications

The Future of the Student Anti-Sweatshop Movement: Providing Access to U.S. Courts For Garment Workers Worldwide. Labor & Employment Law Forum 3, no. 1 (2013): 120-151

Captive Audience Meetings: Employer Speech vs. Employee Choice, 36 OHIO N.U. L. REV 591 (2010).

Could Sourcing from Union Shops Be Against the Law? The Original Law Review, Sandstone Academic Press, Volume 5 Number 2, 2009.

Haywood Burns Fellowship on Civil Rights and Human Rights Recipient (Public Interest Fellowship), City University of New York School of Law 2006-2009

Davis-Putter Scholarship Fund Recipient 2008-2009

Charles H. Revson Law Students Public Interest (LSPIN) Fellowship Grant Recipient 2007

W.K. Kellogg Foundation Multicultural Executive Leaders Fellowship Program, 2006-2007

Legal/Political Experience

National Treasury Employees Union, Queens, NY August 2009-December 2010
National Field Organizer/Assistant Counsel: Organized and provided legal representation Transportation Security Officers, primarily at LaGuardia Airport and John F. Kennedy International Airport. Provided assistance to organizers and attorneys at other airports in the areas of workplace injustice and discrimination.

District Office of State Senator Tom Duane, NYC, NY Summer 2008
Intern: Served as an intern for State Senator Tom Duane of the twenty-ninth State Senatorial District in Manhattan, New York. Assisted in constituent matters, organized financial literacy town hall meetings, conducted consultations with disability rights advocates on equal access survey, accompanied constituent to housing court and assisted with related matters.

Elder Law Clinic, CUNY School of Law Fall 2008
Legal Intern: Served as court evaluator and represented petitioner in Article 81 guardianship proceedings.

Economic Justice Project, CUNY School of Law Spring 2008
Legal Intern: Represented CUNY students who were recipients of public benefits. Worked with Welfare Rights Initiative of Hunter College on High School Organizing Project.

McLaughlin and Stern, New York City, NY December 2007
Legal Intern: Logged and coordinated all discovery received from defendant in an employment discrimination case, regarding racial and gender discrimination.

City University of New York School of Law Summer 2007
Research Assistant: Conducted research for Professor Shirley Lung regarding legal education – specifically the combining of academic support with doctrine.

Center for Court Innovation, New York City, NY Summer 2007
Intern: Conducted legal research for the Center for Court Innovation on the predominant constitutional issues facing problem-solving courts. Primarily worked with Family Treatment Courts, Drug Courts, and Mental Health Courts.

Labor Experience

United Students Against Sweatshops, Washington D.C. 2004-2006
National Organizer for Development: Carried out accounting and fundraising program. Supported domestic and international programs and campaigns. Trained high school and college students in worker rights organizing. Built and maintained relationships with allied organizations. Coordinated national conferences and international internship program.

AFL-CIO International Union Summer Program, Colombo, Sri Lanka Summer 2004
Intern: Interned at American Center for International Labor Solidarity in Colombo, Sri Lanka. Edited project reports. Participated in conferences. Assisted with union organizing drives.

Worker Rights Consortium, Washington D.C. Summer and Fall 2001
Intern: Coordinated factory disclosure database. Conducted interviews and internet research for an investigation of the New Era Cap Company. Answered phones and coordinated administrative work.