

APPOINTMENT CANCELLATION NOTICE

Your appointment is a time that has been set aside exclusively for you with either Dr. Jon or Katie, your hygienist. We understand that your time is very valuable to you, and in an effort to respect your time and that of our other patients, we require a TWO BUSINESS DAY notice to change or cancel your appointment. We do understand that we all have busy lives and things can come up last minute from time to time, however, last minute cancellations and no shows may be subject to a $50 cancellation fee.

Thank you,

The Team at Dr. Jon's Office
