

2017 Holiday Calendar

There has been an additional change to the 2017 holiday schedule in January. After further discussion, January 2nd (New Year's Day observed) will be an official company holiday. Below is an updated 2017 BIVI Holiday Calendar.

Closing of the BI/Sanofi swap is still expected to occur in January 2017 and both companies are committed to ensuring a successful first working day as an integrated company. More information on closing and what to expect on the first working day will be coming out soon.

For 2017, the total number of annual paid holidays will be a total of 11 days for all US animal health employees.
