

FACT SHEET – THE ROOMS

The King For A Night – 1 king bed – for egos, high-rollers or yoga-style stretchers

- Full bathroom
- Upholstered comfy chair with ottoman
- Mini-fridge with small freezer
- 40” LED television, plus media hub*
- Desk

The ZED 2 Bed – 2 queen beds – for families or ‘just friends’

- Full bathroom
- Upholstered comfy chair
- Mini-fridge with small freezer
- 40” LED television, plus media hub*
- Desk

The Bachelor Pad – 1 queen bed – for bean-counters, but not necessarily wallflowers

- Stand-up shower stall and stall toilet
- Separate vanity area
- Mini-fridge
- 40” LED television, plus media hub*
- Desk

The Sweet Suite – 2 queen beds + 1 pull-out sofa – for families who live large (and cook) together

- Kitchenette
(two-burner stove-top and built-in larger fridge, pots and pans and more)
- Large living room with bed and sofa
- Separate bedroom with bed
- Small eating table with two chairs
- Full bathroom
- Dresser
- 32” LCD television, in bedroom
- 40” LED television, in living room, plus media hub*

Included In All Rooms

- A bulletin board
- A rotary dial phone (that works!)
- Retro alarm clock
- Plus, locally-sourced and snazzy artwork (sample shown) is hung in each room, featuring the photographic works of Victoria’s Morgan Leik and Vancouver’s Eric Saczuk. Specially for Zed, they went on a graffiti hunt for the most Zed-ish energy around town. We think they found it!

our media hubs let you watch what you want from where you want (phone, laptop, tv) on a cool 40” screen*