Students interested in a major in art must be admitted to the program on the basis of their academic record and a portfolio of current artwork. An inventory sheet of portfolio items must be submitted along with the digital portfolio. Review the admission requirements at bsu.edu/art/admission.

Deadlines

Key dates for admission and freshman scholarship consideration include:

February 20, 2016: Open House and Portfolio Review. On this day, students bring actual artwork to be reviewed for admission consideration. Students applying for art scholarships are encouraged to attend this event. Advance registration is required. Learn more at bsu.edu/art/openhouse.

March 1, 2016: Priority deadline for admission and freshman scholarship consideration.

April 1, 2016: Deadline for regular admission (no scholarship consideration). Ball State practices rolling admission. This means that admission materials, including portfolios, received after this date will be considered on a space-available basis as our enrollment is limited.
