The 38,500 dollar one is a demo machine and is last year model with approximately 110hours
The one for 41,000 plus is a new machine with tier 4 emissions which burns cleaner.

We will either trade it in or take it to auction.

Just so you are prepared to answer council's questions...

- 1 - what does the more expensive one do over the other one?
- 2 – will probably need a budget amendment because $36,000 was budgeted (was that an old estimate?)
- 3 – are you planning on selling the old chipper or trading it in? my notes are unclear as to what was decided in the budget meeting! They say "good to keep" and then "TRADE IN" !!

Here is the cost for the new chipper; it is the same size as our previous $41,850 we can get the one we demoed for around $38,500.
Let me know what everyone what's to do so we can bring it to council for approval.
