

LAKEVIEW PANTRY

Food for Today, Hope for Tomorrow

Dear Friends,

As we move into our next fiscal year, I'd like to take this opportunity to notify you of several exciting staffing changes, taking effect immediately.

It is with great pleasure that I announce the promotion of Greg Nergaard to Manager of Food Programs. Greg has been with Lakeview Pantry for 15 years and has been integral in the daily operations and food distribution at the Sheridan site. His dedication and leadership have allowed the Pantry to grow into an invaluable community resource on the North Side. Greg's new position marks the consolidation of the Pantry's three food programs which will reside under his leadership. This new structure will effectively streamline the program and operations team.

I am also thrilled to announce Ashley Friend's promotion to Director of Development. As many of you know, the Pantry conducted a city-wide search for this position led by recruitment firm, Noetic. After an extensive recruitment effort, we decided to promote talent from within, leveraging Ashley's unique experience and internal knowledge of the organization. She has been with Lakeview Pantry since 2013, during which time she helped to grow overall fundraising revenue by 20%. Additionally, she brings a wealth of experience from her former assignments at Sarah's Circle and the Women's Global Education Project. The Pantry is currently conducting a search to fill Ashley's former position - Development Manager.

In addition to the aforementioned roles, the Pantry is pleased to announce the promotion of Angie Davis to Director of Marketing & Communications and Sarah Roman to Manager of Community Engagement. Angie and Sarah both joined the Pantry in 2016 and bring extensive and diverse backgrounds to their individual positions.

Please join me in congratulating Greg, Ashley, Angie and Sarah on their promotions! I am confident the new organizational structure better positions our talented team to meet the needs of both our clients and donors.

Best Regards,

Kellie O'Connell

Executive Director, Lakeview Pantry
