CONSIDER EMPLOYMENT WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

The University of Oregon is a residential public institution on a 295-acre campus, enrolling more than 20,000 students. One of seven institutions in the Oregon University System, the university is the center of liberal arts education for the state. The history of the university dates to 1872, when it was established by an act of the Oregon Legislature. It is considered among the top public teaching and research universities in the country. As an employee, you would play an important role in achieving the mission of the University of Oregon and in contributing to its excellence.

University employees working at least half-time are offered an excellent benefit plan including health and dental coverage, life and disability insurance, and participation in the state retirement system. Eligible employees are able to take university courses at greatly reduced rates or to transfer the benefit to a family member.

The University of Oregon is an equal-opportunity, affirmative-action institution committed to cultural diversity and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. This publication will be made available in accessible formats upon request. If you are a qualified individual with a disability and you need reasonable accommodation to participate in the hiring process or in employment if hired for this position, please contact the Office of Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity. Telephone: (541) 346-3123; fax: (541) 346-4168; e-mail: aaeinfo@uoregon.edu.

APPLICANT DATA REQUEST CARD

The following demographic information is requested in accordance with Executive Order 11246 and Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) 408.225.
