Remember - If you are printing this onto pale cardstock - set your printer so that it prints as a light grey and not black because you don't want to see black lines at any edges.

▲ I have given an option for a door, but you don't have to use it.

page 2 of 2 Gingerbread Joy Roof ~ cut from white cardstock for a snowy roof

Co-ordinates with my NEW Gingerbread Joy Stampsets!! You might like to see examples on my blog: <http://waltzingmouse.blogspot.com/>

You might like to cut sharp points along here for icicles, or a wavy line for a snow overhang.

The roof is designed to be larger than the base so that there is a slight overhang. See blog for examples.
