March 27, 2016 Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

March 27, 2016

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Risen Lord Jesus,

As we rejoice on this Easter Day and throughout the fifty days of the Easter season, do not the words of the psalmist echo over and over again: "Praise the Lord, for he is good; for his mercy endures forever" (Ps 136:1)? God's mercy is revealed clearly and so intentionally in the Dying and Rising of His Only-begotten Son, sent to be our Savior and Redeemer precisely through His victory over evil, sin, suffering and eternal death.

Yes, "Jesus Christ is the Face of the Father's Mercy" (Misericordiae Vultus, 1). In His words and actions, we see revealed to us how loved we are by Our Father, how enveloped we are by His mercy. We encounter His mercy every time we receive the Sacrament of Penance, which the Risen Lord Jesus instituted and gave to His apostles and through them to His Church on that first Easter night. During the Last Supper, Jesus Christ instituted both the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist and the Sacrament of Holy Orders, these sacraments being confirmed, in a sense, by His Dying on the Cross and by His Rising on Easter. And in His new commandment to love, the Lord reveals the depths of His Father's mercy towards us and of the corresponding mission given us to be convincing heralds of this same divine mercy to everyone we encounter.

Yes, in the Dying and Rising of Jesus Christ, the mercy of Our God is so clearly revealed, so that, in turn, we become its heralds every day!

Assuring you of my prayers, especially on Easter and throughout the Easter Season, I remain

Faithfully in the Heart of Christ,

Most Reverend Paul S. Loverde
Bishop of Arlington

The St. Theresa School Auction "Saturday Night Fever" is being held on April 23, 2016 at the school to benefit the Music and Art Departments. This annual fundraiser includes a silent and live auction with cash bar, dinner, dancing and lots of surprises. The school will be transformed into Studio 54 for one night and parishioners are welcomed to attend. It guarantees to be a great time and is for a great cause. For tickets, donations and for more information please visit www.stsauction.com.

Dear Parishioners,

Today we rejoice in the glory that is Easter: "He is risen, Alleluia!" Our entire Faith is based on the event we celebrate today, which is why Easter is the central feast of the Church calendar. In fact, every Sunday is considered a "Little Easter" -- one day is not enough to contain the joy that is Easter. I wish to extend to you and yours a most blessed day -- and season. I pray that each and every one of us may be renewed in our Faith -- not only in the words of our Baptismal Promises at Mass -- but truly in our very way of living. My thanks to all who helped to add to the beauty of the liturgies during the Triduum -- our choirs and musicians, our servers, lectors, ushers, and all who had a hand in the celebrations.

Next Sunday we will mark the celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday. Our devotions will begin at 2:30pm and include exposition, daytime prayer, chanting of the chaplet, and benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Please note that confession before or after Divine Mercy Sunday suffices for the requirements attached to the promises made to Saint Faustina regarding the special favors of the day. Our annual egg hunt will also take place next Sunday, following the 12:30pm Mass. Bring the kids for some special Easter fun!

May God bless you!

Sincerely in Christ,

The Calix Society

Having Trouble with Alcohol? Affected by Someone's Drinking? Consider Attending a Calix Society Meeting—Saturdays at 10am.

Started in 1949, Calix is an association of Catholic alcoholics who are maintaining their sobriety through affiliation with and participation in the Fellowship of Alcoholics Anonymous. Our first concern is to interest Catholics with an alcoholic problem in the virtue of total abstinence. Our second stated purpose is to promote the spiritual development of our membership. Our gathering today is an effort in this direction.

Each meeting starts with the group praying the Chaplet of The Divine Mercy, followed by a brief introduction. The discussion is then open for sharing of our experiences, strengths and struggles in a Catholic-centered setting. In addition to finding support and encouragement, many attendees have found a renewal and a deepening of their faith through the Calix Society meetings. Attendees' anonymity is protected at all times.
