

Rhode Island College Budget Worksheet for Study Abroad

In developing this budget, be certain to consult Nancy Bessette in the Office of Financial Aid – if you are a recipient of financial aid at the college – so that you will know how much financial aid you can expect to receive to cover your expenses while abroad. For information about specific in-country expenses, contact an advisor with the particular program provider.

Expenses

Cost

Application fee or tuition deposit	$
Program tuition (not including deposit)	$
Passport and visa costs	$
Immunizations	$
Health insurance (if not included)	$
Roundtrip international airfare	$
Entry and exit taxes (if applicable)	$
Special course fees (if applicable)	$
Books and other school expenses	$
Local transportation ( buses, metro, etc)	$
Extra excursion expenses	$
Extra meals (not included in program tuition)	$
Laundry (if coin-op or not included)	$
Apartment housing (if not included in tuition)	$
Apartment housing deposit (if not Included)	$
Personal expenses (entertainment, souvenirs etc)	$
Personal travel expenses	$
Emergency cash	$
Total Expenses	$

Resources

Amount Estimate

Family contribution	$
Personal savings	$
Additional income from anticipated earnings	$
Scholarship awards - anticipated	$
Financial aid	$
Other resources	$
Subtotal	$