Copyright Transfer. In consideration of the acceptance of the above Work for publication, I do hereby assign, transfer, or otherwise convey exclusively to the Publisher all my rights, title, and interest in and to the copyright, any and all rights incident thereto, in the Work, including all its graphic, photographic, and image-related elements. This assignment transfers exclusively to the Publisher all of my rights under any law governing moral, publicity, or privacy rights or other proprietary rights directly or indirectly relating to the Work assigned. Author Representations. In signing below, the author attests and warrants that:

1. The Work and all of its elements are original, without fabrication, plagiarism, or fraud; if the Work or any element of the Work is found to be fabricated, plagiarized, or fraudulent, I share responsibility and any potential legal liability.
2. No part of the Work or any other element of the Work violates any copyright, moral right, or other right of any third party and publication of the Work by Publisher will not violate any copyright, moral right, or other right of any third party. If any graphic, photographic, and image-related elements of the Work have been published previously, whether in print or electronically, permission has been obtained from the copyright holder and written evidence of such permission has been provided to the Publisher.
3. I have not previously granted, and will not subsequently grant, to any person or entity other than the Publisher a license, assignment, or other authorization of any kind to exercise any rights under copyright relating to the Work.
4. I understand and acknowledge that I will not receive any royalty or other monetary compensation for assigning my rights to the Publisher under this Agreement.
5. I understand that if the Publisher decides not to publish the Work, the Publisher will notify the corresponding author and copyright ownership will revert to the authors.

Authorship. I have made a significant contribution to the Work and meet all 3 of the following authorship criteria: (1) I made a substantial contribution to the conception and design of the study reported, the acquisition of the data used in the study, or the analysis and interpretation of the data; (2) I was involved in drafting and revising the manuscript for important intellectual content; and (3) I approved the submitted version of the manuscript and will have an opportunity to approve subsequent revisions to the manuscript.

Prior publication. Information in the manuscript has not been published elsewhere in any printed or electronic format, in any language, and will not be published or submitted for publication elsewhere until a final decision has been made that the manuscript is not accepted for publication by the Publisher. Copies of any abstracts of the manuscript that have been published or that have been or will be submitted for publication, along with copies of any closely related manuscripts or manuscripts with substantially similar content, whether published or yet to be published, have been provided to the Publisher.

All funding, other financial support, and material support obtained directly or indirectly from any third party in connection with information included in the Work or with the writing of the manuscript has been clearly identified in the acknowledgments section of the Work.

Conflict of interest disclosure. All conflicts of interest, including relevant financial interests (e.g., ownership, employment, consultancies, honoraria, paid expert testimony, grants, patent-licensing arrangements, equity interests, and service as an officer or board member), activities, relationships, and affiliations (other than those listed on the title page of the Work) occurring at the present time or within the 3 years prior to submission of the Work have been clearly identified in the acknowledgments section of the Work.
