Erongo / Erongo Wilderness Lodge

DBB

After breakfast your rental vehicle will be delivered to your hotel. Drive via Okahandja to your lodge only a few kilometers outside Omaruru.

The next 2 days you have at leisure to participate in a variety of guided walks and enjoy the magnificent scenery of the area.

www.bigsky-namibia.com

Close to the small town of Omaruru in central Namibia, is the Erongo Wilderness Lodge. It is nestled amongst, and surrounded by huge boulders and granite formations, all on the outskirts of an ancient volcano. These are the Erongo Mountains, flanked by the Namib Desert to the west and a mixed, woodland savannah to the east. The rare confluence of ecosystems are home to a vast array of plant, reptile, mammal and bird species, some endemic to Namibia.

Raised wooden walkways and natural stone steps, connect the tented chalets to the main area. The restaurant and pub at Erongo Wilderness Lodge are situated on a separate, rocky outcrop from which the floodlit waterhole can be viewed. A winding path, past colonies of dassies (some of which inhabit overhanging trees & have the startling habit of dropping down as you walk past) leads from the reception area up the hill to this entertainment area. There is a large, central fireplace, comfortable lounge with a big leather sofa with matching chairs, a small selection of books, and the 'Mokoro' bar, all set in stunning surrounds. There are also two decked areas where meals & drinks can be enjoyed in warmer weather.

This is not just the place to relax and unwind in, but also to enjoy the lodge's fine wining and dining. Tea/coffee and rusks are served before the early morning walk, and on their return, guests can tuck into a huge brunch, consisting of cereals, yogurts, fruit, homemade breads, cheese, cold meats, plus a choice of omelette's/pancakes, or a full English breakfast if so wished!

Homemade cake is served around 3pm, before setting out on the afternoon activities.

Dinner is a delicious affair, and dishes such as baked camembert with red current sauce, beefsteak in brandy and cream sauce, pork in red wine, and an appetizing apple strudel and custard, appear on the menu.

The elevated pool deck, is the perfect spot for a sundowner or night cap, whilst admiring the spectacular views, day or night.

There are 10 tented chalets, built on stilts, and erected under steep, thatched roofs for shade. As each one has been set apart amongst the rocks, a high degree of privacy and exclusivity has been achieved. The en-suite bathrooms have been built around existing rocks and tree. The tents have recently been upgraded, with the major improvement being an increased size & the introduction of proper doors (no more annoying zips to get in and out of your tent). Apart from the main entrance the tents also boast large french doors, each of which serve the dual purpose of framing an amazing view and the more traditional purpose of allowing access to the private deck. A bush-style mini-bar, reading lights & fine linen complete the Erongo chalet comfort level.

Although wildlife in the area include leopard, kudu, oryx, eland, mountain zebra, springbok and steenbok the primary reason for visiting Erongo Wilderness Lodge should not be as a wildlife viewing destination, it is better suited for those wanting to relax, walk & enjoy the tranquil environment. Birders will be thrilled by the variety of species on offer. It is recommended to join one of the lodge's guided walks and drives, not only to view the game, but to marvel at the magnificent environment.

Guided walks depart early in the morning to a granite view point, with various flora and fauna being pointed out on the way, including their various traditional and medicinal uses. An evening walks to a nearby koppie, can also be arranged, which gives their guests an opportunity to quench their thirst as they watch the sun set. There are also a number of unguided tracks that can be explored.

The lodge are proud of being a founder member of The Erongo Mountain Nature Conservancy, a collective effort with 30 other private landowners, committed to conserve, protect and preserve over 200,000ha of land, rich in cultural heritage. This includes the historic and irreplaceable rock paintings and engravings found throughout the area, such as the Paula's Cave rock art site at Erongo Wilderness Lodge.

Erongo Wilderness Lodge. Highly recommended!
