Re: Nanny Position

Dear Mrs. Steele:

I am writing to express my interest in your nanny position, as advertised on wholelottajobs.com. I understand from your ad you are looking for a skilled, experienced, and caring nanny for your two young children. After looking through your listed requirements and it is my belief that I would make for a satisfactory nanny for your household.

As you will see in my attached resume, I have six years of experience as a nanny for two families with young children. In addition to my application and resume, I am attaching recommendation letters from both my previous employers. I believe that you will find that they both describe me as a responsible, mature, and professional caretaker for their young children.

In addition to my full-time nanny jobs, I have also worked as a part-time babysitter for several families throughout my high school years. This experience and my experience with my three younger siblings has helped me to develop my exceptional child caring skills.

I love children and find nothing is more rewarding than taking care of them. I believe in creating a positive, fun environment for children, one in which they feel safe and can thrive. I have good organizational and communication skills, which I believe are among the most important attributes for a nanny to have.

I don't mind doing extra duties for the household, like cleaning and cooking dinner. I work well with others, thanks to my friendly and caring demeanor, and am sure that I will go well with your other household employees.

I am very interested in working for you, and I hope that you will give me a chance to meet you in person to further discuss my candidacy.

Sincerely,

(Signature)

Stephanie Christopher
