

Student Acknowledgment and Waiver

In consideration for a student to participate in a course, internship, or program involving experiential learning at Temple University, s/he understands that there are certain risks in connection with such activity and must agree to the following:

1. I agree to release Temple University (and all its officers, employees and agents) from responsibility in all manner of actions and causes of actions – i.e., suits, debts, accounts, judgments – including all claims arising out of incidents involving personal injury of any kind or the loss or damage of property of any kind by reason of participation in this class, internship, or program.
2. I assume any and all risks arising from my participation in the experiential activity involved in this course or program, including without limitation, the risks of bodily injury or property theft or damage, the unavailability of emergency medical care, or the negligent, criminal or deliberate act of another person.
3. I accept responsibility and will reimburse Temple University for any damages or expenses that arise out of or relate to my own negligent or intentional action or omission.

This acknowledgment and waiver is intended to be legally binding.

The undersigned expressly acknowledges that s/he has read and understands this Agreement and Release and signs it freely and voluntarily.

[Note: If the student is not 18 or older, a signature from the parent or guardian is also required.]
