

Summary Statement: Ted L. Anderson, MD, PhD, FACOG

A. Educational Background (with years of attendance or completion):

College University of Southern Mississippi (1976) BS, Biology (1978) MS, Biology/Genetics
Vanderbilt University (1985) PhD, Anatomy/Cell Biology
Med School Vanderbilt University School of Medicine (1993) MD, Medicine
Residency Vanderbilt Med Ctr: Pathology (1993-94); Ob/Gyn Internship, Residency, Admin Chief (1994-98)
Fellowships Research Fellowship (Molecular Biology), Baylor College of Medicine (1985-86)
Research Fellowship, (Reprod. Endocrinology) Jones Inst for Reproductive Medicine (1986-87)
Reproductive Surgery Fellowship, ASRM/SRS, James Daniell, MD Nashville TN (1998-99)
Other Certificate, Patient Care Leadership Program, Owen Graduate School of Management, Vanderbilt (2015)

B. Practice-Related Activities:

My practice activities currently incorporate the breadth of general gynecology with a focus on endocrine dysfunction, anatomic anomalies, general gynecologic and minimally invasive gynecologic surgery. I was formerly Chair of the Department of Ob-Gyn at HCA Centennial Medical Center in Nashville, TN (2001-2005). I currently serve as Vice Chair for Clinical Affairs, Department of Ob-Gyn, and Medical Director of the gynecologic surgery unit for Vanderbilt University Medical Center. I founded the Fellowship in Minimally Invasive Surgery at Vanderbilt.

C. Educational or Academic Experience:

Academic Appointments Betty and Lonnie S. Burnett Professor, Dept ObGyn Vanderbilt Medical School
Vice Chair for Clinical Affairs, Dept ObGyn, Vanderbilt Medical School
Director, Division of Gynecology, Dept ObGyn, Vanderbilt Medical School
Professor of Women's Health, Vanderbilt University School of Nursing
Medical Director, Gynecologic Surgery, Vanderbilt Hospital Perioperative Services
Educational Experience Preceptor, Introduction to Clinical Medicine, Freshman Medical Curriculum
Lecturer, surgical mentor, 3rd year clerkship and residency program in Ob/GYN
Research mentor, Ob/Gyn residency program and MIGS fellowship program
Other Activities APGO, Founding Faculty, Surgical Education Scholars Program (2011- 2017)
ACOG District VII Mentor of the Year Award (2014)
AAGL John Steege Mentorship Award (2016)
Founder and Co-director, Vanderbilt Fellowship in Minimally Invasive Surgery (2005-present)

D. College and Congress activities: (JF from residency until 2000; Fellow 2000-present)

Junior Fellow: Junior Fellow TN Section Vice Chair/Chair (1995-1998)
Junior Fellow District VII Vice Chair/Chair (1998-2000)
JF College Advisory Council Vice Chair (2000-2001)
JF Chair - Representative to Executive Board (2001-2002)
District VII Informatics Chair (1998 - 2000)
Fellow: Tennessee Section Fellow Program Chair / Vice Chair (2001-2003)
District VII Fellow Treasurer / Vice Chair / Chair (2003-2012)
Executive Board, Council of District Chairs (2009-2012)
Chair, Council of District Chairs (2011-2012)
Representative to Government Relations Committee
JFCAC National Advisor
Outstanding District Service Award, District VII (2014)
Treasurer, ACOG Executive Board (2015-present)
ACOG Task forces: Morcellator Technical Assessment, Electronic Health Records,
Practice Satisfaction, Annual District Meetings
ACOG-Ethiopia ObGyn Society Collaboration, CME Course on Basic Laparoscopy (2018)
ACOG Liaison to American Medical Informatics Association
ACOG-ABOG Liaison Committee
District VII Informatics Chair (2000 - 2005)
Government Outreach and Relations Committee (2007 -2009)
Nominations Committee (2006 - 2009)
ACOG/CDC Representative to Surgical Collaborative in Ob/Gyn (2010-2015)
ACOG Leadership Institute (2009)
ACOG Congressional Leadership Conference (multiple years)

E. Other Professional or Committee-Related Activities:

President, Nashville/Middle Tennessee Ob-Gyn Society (2003-2004)
Lonnie S. Burnett Vanderbilt Ob-Gyn Society (Program Chair 2009-11; President-elect 2011-13; President 2013-16)
ABOG Oral Board Examiner (2008 - present)
Board of Directors, A Step Ahead Foundation of Nashville (LARCs for underserved women) (2015-present)
Board of Advisors, Nashville Mary Parrish Center (victims of domestic violence) (2005-present)
Board of Trustees, American Association of Gynecologic Laparoscopists (AAGL) (2009-2010)
Board of Trustees, AAGL/SRS Fellowship in Minimally Invasive Gynecologic Surgery (2010-present)
Secretary/Treasurer (2016-2017)
Editorial Advisory Committee, Journal of Minimally Invasive Gynecology (2009 -2010)
Editorial Board, Journal of Minimally Invasive Gynecology (2011 -present)
AAGL and FMIGS Bylaws committee chair (2015-present)
AAGL Residents & Fellows Education Committee (2007 -2009)
AAGL Website Committee (2009-2012)
AAGL Curriculum Committee (2010-present)