Warehousing & Transportation

Our warehouse systems and processes assure you the highest operational efficiency. Companies in the healthcare, technology, automotive, retail and other industries rely on Kuehne + Nagel to manage their warehouse operations as part of an integrated logistics management solution. As a full-service logistics provider, Kuehne + Nagel gives you the precise combination of warehousing, transportation and value-added services you need for maximum flexibility.

Value added services:

- Order Management
- Return Management
- Promotional sets/store displays
- Labeling and repacking
- Assembling Services
- 7/24 Call Center

Information Management

Kuehne + Nagel facilities share common processes and systems, so you receive consistent reporting and billing – in addition to consistent customer service. A single system interface simplifies all data exchange requirements and our warehouse management systems are fully Internet enabled. Our browser-based Dashboard gives you the same inventory and order information visibility you’d have if you were managing the process yourself.

Your advantages:

- Put product closer to your customers, improving service and reducing transportation costs.
- Reduce inventory through better supply chain planning.
- Reduce operational costs through process efficiencies and targeted use of warehouse automation.
- Free capital for strategic investments.
- Control warehouse costs by sharing overhead with other Kuehne + Nagel clients.
- Control manufacturing costs and reduce inventory by doing final product configuration in the warehouse.
- Drive consistency and quality. All facilities are ISO 9001:2000 certified.
- Monitor orders and inventory in real time via our Web interface.
- Ease burdens of administering multiple warehouse providers. Kuehne + Nagel is the single-source contact for many customers with multiple distribution center needs across the continent.
