How did you get
where you are professionally?

What are the top three accomplishments of your professional life?

Do you prefer a first-
or third-person bio?

No preference

Consider the point at which your professional and personal philosophies
intersect; how has this influenced your career
path?

What would you do
even if you weren't getting paid to do it?

Who is your ideal client/employer and why should they be interested in you?

Is there anything missing from your current resume?

Can you provide any quantitative details/metrics about your accomplishments?

Would you like to include any personal details in your bio?
(family, personal hobbies, passions, etc.)

Is there anything else you would like us to know about you?
