Power of Attorney Ideas and Examples

A power of attorney document is a flexible document that allows an individual to study their entirety and incorporate the necessary facts before enforcing the authority to its holder or agent. Power of attorneys has various uses, including making decisions for young students for their college education by adults like parents, guardians, or the principal's spouse in financial matters, welfare, or school transfers. These legal documents are applicable under the court of law without case proceedings, court orders, or processes functional for a particular term.

Property Power of Attorney Ideas and Examples

A property power of attorney is a legal document that gives an individual the ability to make decisions about a person's property, including real estate, vehicles, and other financial matters, when a person becomes incapable of doing so themselves. Most principals select a family member, or in the case of couples, their spouse, from other groups of individuals to handle making necessary decisions for them. The property power of attorney allows an agent to have authority over an association's finances or a firm's investments, as long as they are properties of the principal.

PROPERTY POWER OF ATTORNEY

This property power of attorney (the "Power of Attorney") is granted by Delaney H. Williamson (the "Principal") of 4303 Briarwood Drive, Camden, New Jersey 08102 on this 5th day of July 2030 in the state of New Jersey.

THE AGENT

I hereby appoint Zoe M. Byrne (the "Agent") of 4697 Briarwood Drive, Paulsboro, New Jersey 08066 to act on behalf of me, the Principal, for the purposes set forth herein.

ASSIGNMENT OF AUTHORITY

The Agent is authorized to act on the Principal's behalf for the management of the residential lands and premises located at 2312 Hickory Lane, Washington, Washington DC 20200 (the "Property"), including but not limited to sell, exchange, convey with or without covenants, quitclaim, release, surrender, mortgage, encumber, partition, or consent to the partitioning of, grant options concerning, lease, sublet, or otherwise disposed of the property.

DATE OF EFFECTIVITY

This Power of Attorney is effective as of the date hereof and shall terminate upon my death or revocation in written instrument.

RATIFICATION

I, the Principal, grant the Agent full power and authority to perform all acts on my behalf as I could do if personally present, hereby ratifying and confirming all that my Agent may do pursuant to this Power of Attorney.

GOVERNING LAW

This Power of Attorney shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of New Jersey.

1. Sign, execute, and deliver all documents pertaining to the Deed of Sale and any other required documents covering such sale to the buyer,
2. Carry out any other act necessary before and after selling the property, and
3. Receive the proceeds of sale on my behalf, whether it be in the form of cash or check.

GOVERNING LAW

This Power of Attorney shall be governed by the laws of the state of North Carolina.

DATE OF EFFECTIVITY

This Power of Attorney will be effective as of the date listed below and can only be revoked in the event of the Principal's incapacity or death.

Financial Power of Attorney Ideas and Examples

Principals use the financial power of attorney as a legal document that is a part of estate planning that grants authority to an agent to make decisions and actions on the principal's behalf due to incapacitation, illness, or death. Financial power of attorney is a durable authority that equates to an agent having to act on the principal's behalf even after their incapacity, without the ability to express decisions. The agent's role dissolves when the principal passes unless they note in their estate plan.

FINANCIAL POWER OF ATTORNEY

On this 30th day of April 2050, in the state of North Carolina, Lydia G. Matthews (the "Principal") of 4577 Stratford Court, Goldsboro, NC 27530, hereby grants this Power of Attorney to Abby D. Austin (the "Agent") of 2270 Red Dog Road, Charlotte, NC 28202. In the event that the Agent is unable, unwilling, or unavailable to act as the attorney-in-fact, the Principal hereby appoints Emanuel E. Mayo of 3324 Fort Street, Rocky Mount, NC 27801 as the successor agent.

REVOCATION OF PREVIOUS POWER OF ATTORNEY

Any and all financial powers of attorney previously issued by the Principal are revoked by the execution of this Power of Attorney.

LIABILITY OF THE AGENT

The scope of authority given to the Agent shall be defined and interpreted by the laws of North Carolina. The Agent will be held liable for any financial damages or otherwise for any conduct deemed in violation to the specified laws and statutes stated herein.

SPECIFIC POWERS OF THE AGENT

The Agent will exercise these powers in the best of the Principal's interests and welfare, as a fiduciary:

1. Banking: In order to exercise the rights and powers granted herein, the Agent can open and close accounts, produce, obtain, and support checks and drafts, deposit and withdraw funds, acquire and redeem certificates of deposit, and execute or release such deeds of trust or other security agreements as may be required or proper.
2. Taxes: To act on the Principal's behalf with respect to federal income taxes, state and local income taxes, estate, gift, and other tax returns of any kind, including federal or state and local, including joint returns, FICA returns, payroll tax returns, claims for refunds, requests for extensions of time to file returns or pay taxes, and extensions and waivers of applicable periods of limitation.
3. Power to Hire and Pay for Services: To retain such accountants, lawyers, social workers, consultants, clerks, staff, workers, or other persons as my agent deems necessary in connection with the management of the Principal's property and affairs, and to pay such persons' fees from the Principal's properties.

ADDITIONAL TERMS

1. The Agent is not paid, but is entitled to reimbursement for fair expenses incurred in carrying out the powers given in this document.
2. The Principal has the right to amend and withdraw this Power of Attorney at any time by writing to the Agent. Third parties would only be able to benefit from any modification or revocation if they are already given written notice of it.

GOVERNING LAW

This Power of Attorney will be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of North Carolina.

DATE OF EFFECTIVITY

This Power of Attorney will be effective only after all the signatories have affixed their signatures. This Power of Attorney shall cease its effectivity once the Principal's physician determines that the Principal is mentally incapacitated.

PHOTOCOPIES

Any copies of this document will be valid provided that the copies are certified and signed by a notary public.
